++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry with sunny intervals.

Today:
A dry day with increasing amounts of sunshine as morning cloud largely clears for the afternoon. Initially a little breezy, but winds turning light as the day progresses. Feeling mild and pleasant in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying dry through the evening and overnight with largely clear skies and light winds. Turning chilly with patchy fog or grass frost forming in some locations by dawn. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Sunday:
Early fog will be slow clear, but will leave a dry day with sunny spells and light winds. Feeling a touch cooler than of late. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Likely rather cloudy on Monday and Tuesday with light winds and some patchy light rain in the northwest sinking southeastwards through Tuesday. A brighter and breezier day on Wednesday.
